Reaching The Lost, Misled, or Confused

The style of the songs in this section and/or the words are such that I feel it is best to not sing these songs on a weekly Sabbath or other Annual Set-apart Days of rest (aka "Holy Days"). For this reason, they've been separated off into this section, separately. Overall, they have the general theme of reaching those who are lost, misled, or confused, in a very bold and direct way in some cases.

But then there came a light to all men

When we were in Egypt, we were bound to the grave
He broke all those chains, and freed us from sin

Without Him we would be alone
Remember what He's called you into

We would have no hope, we would have no home
The Right to life, to be born anew

The Feast Song

G C D Dsus4 G C D Dsus4

The feast has come and the feast is going... יהוה's times, they are appointed!
The Shofar sounds, and His people gather... Like times of old, we are rehearsing!
The days will come, when all will bow before Him... All the nations, shall go up to Yerushalayim

יהוה, yes He is Elohiym... יהושע His Son, He is the Anointed
The Set-Apart One of Yisra'el! Qadosh Qadosh...

Gathered together, His sheep have come to feed... To lift our hands, and give praise to the King!
His name is wondrous, so let's give praise to Him! His Name is יהוה, let's all bow before Him!
His mercies have not left us, nor His kindnesses! He has redeemed us from the pits of death!
His arm is not too short to save, He sent His Son to save us! So let us share the good news with the rest!

Around the camp, shouts of praise and joy now! We learn to praise Him almost every hour!
The world behind us, we're dwelling with our brothers! The Kingdom we long for, there is no other!
Seven days of Sukkot, then the last Great Day... Fulfilling His law, written on our hearts today

Keeping the feast with joy and gladness! Praising יהוה with all of our hearts!

(Verse 1) | Qadosh Qadosh! (x3)

G Am C D

I tried to make it on my own	That's an illusion
I can't do it without Him	It's all confusion
Even the Vine had no home	What am I called to
I'm not called to be someone	Even He gave His life too

Why do we think the servant is greater than the Adon? This is not so.
We cannot escape our calling even if we are falling
Though the righteous may fall seven times but seven times he will rise
Like Messiah when they saw the stone was rolled away and surprised
Where is He gone to? He has risen and so must we.
We do not worship the dead, but the Living Elohiym

We are here to worship in spirit and truth... what else is there?
Can we run? No we cannot; His eyes are everywhere

Seek the truth with your whole heart, don't be afraid He is with you
Even when the world is falling down and evil tries to surround you
From within the darkness comes the light, His presence day and night

He will not leave you nor forsake you, Praise to יהוה HalleluYAH!
HalleluYAH!

Praise Him! He holds you, He holds your right hand
He will never leave nor forsake you, for you are His inheritance

He holds you on high with Him on eagles' wings you fly
He will not let you be broken, even if your body dies
For He will resurrect you with Him! There is nothing here to fear!

יהוה holds you in His arms tight, to Him you are dear (You are dear..)

Though you cry your tears are bottled. He holds them and keeps them there
Don't you know He hears your cries? The time has got to be drawing near
For His people they do seek Him with their whole heart, they cry out
He knows we long to see His face to know His ways we search Him out

His people search Him out

I tried to make it on my own	That's an illusion
I can't do it without Him	It's all confusion
Even the Vine had no home	What am I called to
I'm not called to be someone	Even He gave His life too

Even He gave His life too (repeated)

How Can I Breathe, Father?

(Capo on 3rd Fret)

Intro: C Am HFmaj C

How can I breathe Father? If You had not given me life?
Was I worthy Father? No, I deserved to die.
But You oh Father, while I was still in sin.
You sent Your Son, oh Father, so I could rise again.

Although I was dead, You gave me life.
I was a walking dead man, but You made a sacrifice.
I had no hope, I had no way to live.
But Your Son died, yet He is perfect.

Where can I go? What can I do?
We can't live in sin! No! I refuse to!
This breath that I breath, You've given it to me.
For while I was dead, yet now I am living.
The pain that I caused You, the sin that I did.
I make my choice today, Father I repent!
Fill me with Your Spirit, teach me all Your Ways.
Guide my hands to do the good, to worship You always!

The Song of Mosheh [Direct Quote From Deuteronomy 32:1-43]

Note: According to Deuteronomy 31:19, this is a song which all children of Yisra'el are supposed to be taught, so I encourage you to practice at this song until you have the whole thing memorized.

Give ear, O skies, and let me speak; And hear, O land, The words of my mouth.
Let my instruction fall as rain, My speech drop down as dew,
As fine rain on the tender plants, And as showers on the grass.

For I proclaim the Name of יהוה, Ascribe greatness to our Elohiym.
The Rock! His work is perfect, For all His ways are right-ruling,

An El of truth and without unrighteousness, Righteous and straight is He.

A twisted and crooked generation has corrupted itself, Their blemish, they are not His children.

Do you do this to יהוה, O foolish and unwise people?
Is He not your Father, who bought you, Who created you and established you?

Remember the days of old, Consider the years of many generations. Ask your father and let him show you, Your elders, and let them say to you:

*"When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance When He separated the sons of Adam,
He set the boundaries of the peoples According to the number of the children of Yisra'el."*

For the portion of יהוה is His people, Ya'aqov His allotted inheritance.

He found him in a wilderness, And in a wasted, howling desert. He encompassed him, He made him understand, He watched over him as the apple of His eye. As an eagle stirs up its nest, Flutters over its young, Spreading out its wings, taking them up, Bearing them on its wings. יהוה alone led him,

And there was no strange mighty one with him. He made him ride in the heights of the land, And he ate the fruit of the fields, And He made him to draw honey from the rock, And oil from the flinty rock, Curds from the cattle, And milk of the flock, With fat of lambs, And rams of the breed of Bashan, And goats, with the choicest wheat; And you drank wine, the blood of the grapes.

But Yeshurun grew fat and kicked; You grew fat, you grew thick, You are covered with fat;

So he forsook Eloah who made him, And scorned the Rock of his deliverance.

They moved Him to jealousy with foreign matters, With abominations they provoked Him. They sacrificed to demons - not Eloah - Mighty ones they did not know, New ones who came lately, Which your fathers did not fear.

You neglected the Rock who brought you forth, And forgot the El who fathered you.

And יהוה saw, and despised, Because of the provocation of His sons and His daughters.

And He said, 'Let Me hide My face from them, Let Me see what their end is, For they are a perverse generation, Children in whom there is no trusting.

They made Me jealous by what is not El, They provoked Me with their worthless matters. But I make them jealous by those who are no people, I provoke them with a foolish nation. For a fire was kindled in My wrath And burns to the bottom of She'ol, And consumes the land and its increase, And sets on fire the foundations of mountains. I gather evils upon them, I use up My arrows upon them -

Wasted by scarcity of food, And consumed by heat and bitter destruction, And the teeth of beasts I send upon them, With the poison of serpents of the dust. The sword bereaves from the outside, And fear from within, Both young man and maiden, Nursing child with the man of grey hairs.

I said, 'I should blow them away, I should make the remembrance of them To cease from among men, 'If I did not fear the enemy's taunt, Lest their adversaries misunderstand, Lest they say, "Our hand is high, And יהוה has not done all this."

For they are a nation lost to counsel, And there is no understanding in them.

If they were wise, They would understand this, They would consider their latter end! How would one chase a thousand, And two put ten thousand to flight, Unless their Rock had sold them, And יהוה had given them up? For their rock is not like our Rock -

Even our enemies are judges.

Their vine is of the vine of Sodom And of the fields of Amarah;

Their grapes are grapes of gall, Their clusters are bitter.

Their wine is the poison of serpents, And the fierce venom of cobras.

'Is it not stored up with Me, Sealed up among My treasures?

Vengeance is Mine, and repayment, At the time their foot slips;

For near is the day of their calamity, And the matters prepared are hastening to them.'

For יהוה rightly rules His people And has compassion on His servants, When He sees that their power is gone, And there is no one remaining, Shut up or at large.

And He shall say, 'Where are their mighty ones, The rock in whom they sought refuge?
Who ate the fat of their sacrifices, And drank the wine of their drink offering?
Let them arise and help you, Let it be a hiding-place for you!

See now that I, I am He, And there is no Elohiym besides Me. I put to death and I make alive. I have wounded, and I heal. And from My hand no one delivers!

For I lift My hand to the skies, And shall say: As I live forever, If I have sharpened My flashing sword, And My hand takes hold on judgment, I shall return vengeance to My enemies, And repay those who hate Me. I make My arrows drunk with blood, And My sword devours flesh, With the blood of the slain and the captives, From the long-haired enemy chiefs.'

O nations, acclaim His people! For He avenges the blood of His servants, And returns vengeance to His adversaries, And shall pardon His land, His people.

Note: This song was written while standing up and is intended to be sung standing up for those who able to do so. For those not playing instruments, lift your hands in praise and as you feel led, bow to Him! In Hebrew, to "worship" is literally to bow prostrated with our face to the ground.

Note2: The "Echo" lines in the first verse are only done on the second time through the first verse. All echo lines should be done by a second singer singing in a different pitch to harmonize with the main singer. The "Echo" lines for the Chorus are always sung each time.

You're Bringin' Me Back
[Based on Luke 15:20-24]

Note: This song is usually sung like old Hymns, acapella, but could probably go for having some violin or piano or other instrumental music written for it, if done properly. Notes for things to think on while singing this song and how to sing this song properly are in parentheses and italics.

(sing higher)

You're bringing me back, back, to where I was before, before I strayed awaaaay from You...
(hold same tone)

You're bringin' me back, to where I was before, before I straaaaaaayed away
You're takin' me back, in Your Arms, back hoooooome with You...
You're bringin' me back, back hoooooome, to beeee with You...

(sung in remorse, as the woman who wetted יהושע's feet with her tears)

(tone goes up) (keep higher tone)

You slaughtered the fattened calf, and put on me new robes
(sung in thankfulness of forgiveness, knowing you don't deserve anything after what you've done)
(keep lower tone, amazed at what He does for you and humbled by His Kindness, wanting to serve Him)

You slaughtered the fattened calf, and put on me a new robe, (sung in amazement, but humbleness, of how He adorns you)
and a ring on my finger
(sung as a child, happy to be home where they are safe)

You're bringin' me back, baaaack hooome, to be with You
You're bringin' me back in Your Arms, to be with You
(higher) (lower tone in humbleness)

You slaughtered the fattened calf, You forgive all my sin,

(grieving over past sins and how you hurt יהוה)

You're bringin me back, baaack Home, to be with You
You're bringin' me back, in Your Arms to be with You (x2)
You're bringin' me back, baaaack Home, to beeee with You
You slaughtered the fattened calf, You're bringin' me back, baaack home to beeee with You...
(crying out to the Father)
I donnnnn't waaaaant to stray! I doooon't want to strayyyyyy...

(desperate for יהוה's protection and desiring to stay under His covering)

Don't ever let me straaaaay ... away from You...
(crying out to the Father) (crying out more strongly, begging Him)
I don't waaaaant to stray! I don't waaaaant to stray! I don't waaaaant to stray... away from You!

(offering up this request as a prayer with hands raised to יהוה)

So keep me in Your Hand, in Your Arms, to beeee with You
Keep me in Your Hand, in Your Arms, to bee with You
(crying out to the Father) (lower tone)
Don't leet me go, don't leeeet me stray, don't let me wanderrrrr...away

Appendix B - Notes & Comments

General Comments & Notes On Notation & Understanding This Song Book Properly

The symbol, |, which looks like a straight up and down line is called the “pipe” character on the keyboard. If you see two blocks of text or chords separated by a pipe | symbol that looks like this: | You should treat that the same as you would a line break (as if the text and chords on both sides of that symbol were actually on two separate lines). The reason this becomes important is with understanding how many times to repeat chords or words. For example, suppose the following were in a song:

G A F		D C A		E D7
I will sing! (x2)		forever and ever		I will sing to Him! (x3)

This would mean that you would sing and play the chords for “I will sing” two times, followed by singing “forever and ever” one time, followed by singing “I will sing to Him” three times. Even though they are all on the same line, you would treat it like they are on three separate lines.

That is different from if you saw the following:

G A F	D C A	E D7
I will sing!	forever and ever	I will sing to Him! (x3)

This would mean you would sing the whole entire line three times.

For a chorus if you see Chorus (x2) that means you sing the entire chorus two times even though the (x2) appears directly above or to the left of the words for the chorus.

If you see ||: on one line and :|| (x2) one or two lines down, that means repeat those two or three lines twice. For example:

A	C	Am	C	G
: Praise Yah!	Praise Yahweh forever!	He is magnificent and mighty and strong!
	D
He is Greatly To Be Praised!	: (x2)

Even though these are on two separate lines, you would repeat everything between ||: and :|| twice to sing, “Praise Yah! Praise Yahweh forever! He is magnificent and mighty and strong! He is Greatly To Be Praised!” twice. If it said (x3) then you would do it three times. This could mean repeating chords and words across 2-3 lines instead of just one line.

Symbols “-”, “/”, and “&” Between Chords

For guitar chords, “-” between chords indicates dragging of the finger when switching between notes, not strum. A “/” between chords indicates there are two keys that you can play a song in – either play the whole song with the notes before the “/” or after the “/”, but don’t try to play both. An “&” between chords indicates that both chords can be played at the same time, which requires another guitar or other instrument, or interchanged frequently for one guitar. You should listen to a recording or practice to figure out the best way to intertwine chords, change back and forth, etc. if playing alone. Or, in some cases, you could opt to only play one of the chords and ignore the other.

Other notes may be added to this section of the song book in the future as needed. This is a very informal appendix intended to aid persons in using this song book, but it may not cover everything needed and guitar or singing lessons may be required to correctly sing and play some songs.

If you see a “+” after a page number in the Table of Contents, that means a song extends beyond the first page it starts on and spans more than one entire page. Some songs are longer medleys and there is no way to fit them on just one page!

Sometimes notes about how to sing or play the guitar are inserted above chords or around chords in a song. This may include notes like speed up, slow down, etc.. Also, if you see a song refer to “skipping” or “voice skipping”, that is referring to purposefully singing in a stuttered way where syllables of words are being broken up and a melody is heard using one syllable with the voice.

For pictures of guitar chords, the letters on the tops of the strings are to show what string to put your finger on, not the actual notes that are played for the chord. This is to keep it simple for new guitar players. The numbers on the circles on the guitar chords indicate which fingers go where. Finger #1 is your pointer finger, finger #2 is your middle finger, finger #3 is your ring finger, finger #4 is your pinky finger. A long bar across multiple strings means your whole finger should be pressed against all those strings at one time. This may require lots of practice to make all the notes sound correct.
